

Hundred in Unimas 'Go Bald' for cancer funds

KUCHING: Universiti Malaysia Sarawak (Unimas) showed its staunch support towards the 'Go Bald campaign' by shaving the heads of more than 100 staff and students from the university recently

The campaign to create awareness of children's cancer is organised by the Sarawak Children's Cancer Society.

The symbolic shave in Unimas is also meant to collect funds for the children through pledge cards.

According to a press statement from Unimas, the funds are meant to support the families of children who have to undergo surgery.

During the event, Unimas also handed RM5,000 in donation to the society represented by the Dean from the Faculty of Medicine and Health Science Prof Dr Ahmad Hatta Rasit to the society's president Rizal Sahaari.
